Using references and sending us documentation

If you send us any original documents or records, you must tell us that they are originals. You must also tell us, in writing, if you agree that we can securely destroy any documents or records you send us. We securely destroy documents and records 50 working days after we have digitally scanned them. This applies to copies of documents or records as well as originals. If you do not tell us that you agree, we will return everything to you except any files or folders.

If you tell us that you agree, you have the right to change your mind. If you do, you must tell us this in writing within 40 working days of the date that you sent us those documents or records.

Our standard policy is to destroy any memory sticks or other removable digital media you send us. We strongly recommend that you encrypt the data you send us, to make it more secure. Whichever method you choose to contact us, you need to quote the case reference [REDACTED]
